Porbandar: Forest dept staff found dead in sanctuary

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
RAJKOT, AUGUST 17

TWO DAYS after a six-month pregnant forest guard, her husband and a daily wager of the Gujarat Forest Department went missing inside the Barda Wildlife Sanctuary in Porbandar district, their bodies were recovered from a stream deep inside the forest on Monday, with the police saying, prima facie, it appeared a case of triple murder.

The police said that Hetal Solanki, 30, a forest guard of Godhana beat in the Bhanvad range of the sanctuary had gone out on routine patrol on Saturday afternoon. She was accompanied by her husband Kirti Solanki, a teacher at a government primary school in Ratdi village of Porbandar taluka, and daily wager Nagajan Agath.

When they did not return till Sunday morning and their phones remained unreachable, Kirti's father Govind filed a missing person's report. The couple's car was found abandoned. A team of around 250 policemen, home guards and police trainees scoured the forest before their bodies were found, SP Porbandar, Ravi Mohan Sain said.

"Given the difficult terrain, we deployed drones, sniffer dogs and personnel of three police stations, and later pressed in more people," Sain said.

"Bodies of all three have external injuries on their heads. The nature of the injuries suggests they were hit by a blunt object. Hence, prima facie, it is a case of murder," the SP said.

The Barda sanctuary had been identified by the Gujarat government as a prospective second home for the endangered Asiatic lions, while opposing in the Supreme Court, pleas seeking translocation of the big cats to Madhya Pradesh in 2013. Spread over 192.31 sq km, the hilly sanctuary is also home to a native population of leopards.

It also has several settlements of cattle-herders as well as several illegal breweries of country liquor. Asked if they were looking at the involvement of bootleggers, the SP said, "We are looking at the incident from all angles." He added that no problems regarding country liquor, logging or mining had been reported in the area.

Dushyant Vasavada, the Chief Conservator of Forests, Junagadh Wildlife Circle, said Solanki was a forest guard of the 2017 batch. About her husband being with her while she was on patrol duty Vasavada said, "Forest guards are supposed to live in forest quarters if available, and their family members are allowed to live there."

A release by the Porbandar police quoted Solanki's father Govind as saying the three had set out at 12 pm on Saturday "to keep a watch on illegal activities going on in Barda Dungar".

Stabbed 12 times outside mosque, businessman dies

MOHAMED THAVER
MUMBAI, AUGUST 17

Mumbai businessman Abdul Munaf Shaikh

NEARLY SEVEN months after Abdul Munaf Shaikh wrote to the Mumbai Police expressing the fear that "criminals" were conspiring to kill him during his daily walk to the mosque, the high-profile businessman was murdered on Monday in exactly the same manner he had foreseen.

A Juhu resident who owned a range of businesses, Shaikh (55) was stabbed 12 times just outside Irla mosque in Vile Parle, of which, he was one of the trustees.

Shaikh's brother-in-law Salim Baig, a former corporator, said Shaikh had been attending the first namaz of the day at Irla mosque for years.

"Over the last two years, because of the threat, instead of walking to the mosque, he would drive there. While at other times of the day, a bodyguard accompanied him, he used to go to the mosque alone in the morning, it was the only time he was alone," Baig said. Though no congregations were being held due to Covid-19, the trustees assembled to pray every morning.

The incident took place around 6 am as Shaikh was about to enter the mosque. "It appears that two persons carried out the attack. There were 12 stab wounds, including a slit throat," an officer said adding that they have found CCTV footage of one of the attackers.

Shaikh was rushed to Cooper hospital where he was declared brought dead. Later, a case of murder against unidentified persons was registered by Juhu police.

Shaikh's bodyguard Umar Qureshi said, "I come around 10 am and remain with him through the day. He went alone to the mosque."

According to Shaikh's family, letters informing about imminent threat to his life, along with names of those behind the threat, were being sent to the police for the last two years. "While one was sent on October 12, last year, the last letter was sent January 7, this year.."

A copy of the letter, whose subject line mentions "conspiracy to commit murder" – addressed to then joint commissioner of police (Crime) – stated: "...I was informed that few criminals from our area.. have hatched a conspiracy to kill me during my walk.. the said goons had waited for me, armed with weapons, on a few occasions to attack me."

An officer from Mumbai Police said that they did receive a letter last October. "Inquiries were carried out then and statements of people against whom allegations were made were recorded. However, a cognisable offence was not made out," he said.

After 5 months in jail, RTI activist's minor son home

SANTOSH SINGH
PATNA, AUGUST 17

THE 14-YEAR-OLD son of an RTI activist in Buxar returned home on Monday, after spending five and a half months in jail as police declared him an adult while arresting him on charges under the Arms Act.

He was granted bail on Friday after the state Juvenile Justice Board declared him a minor.

The Indian Express had on August 8 published a report about the activist who had been running from pillar to post saying his minor son was framed and shown as an adult by police who arrested him and charged him in an Arms Act case with two others. Bihar DGP Gupteshwar Pandey monitored the case and the Buxar SP ordered a probe by the Sadar Sub-Divisional Police Officer into the role of local police.

DGP Pandey told The Indian Express on Monday: "We are looking into the matter, including allegations by the minor boy. We are waiting for the SDPO report."

Actor-director Nishikant Kamat passes away

ED books Chinese national for 'Rs 1,000 cr hawala racket'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, AUGUST 17

THE ENFORCEMENT Directorate (ED) has registered a case of money laundering against a Chinese national for allegedly running a hawala racket worth an estimated Rs 1,000 crore by floating several shell companies.

Charlie Peng (42), who also goes by the name of Luo Sang, has been charged under various sections of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA), sources said. Peng was first booked by the Delhi Police in 2018 – ED has filed its case based on this FIR.

Peng and some of his alleged associates were searched by the Income Tax Department on August 12. At least two dozen premises, including Peng's in Gurgaon, were searched.

Peng, according to sources, is alleged to be holding a fake Indian passport and tax officials said he created a "web of sham companies to launder hawala funds to and from China" over the past two to three years. He was involved in import and export of medical and electronic goods and some other items as a front, they said.

According to sources, Peng was arrested by the Special Cell of the Delhi Police in September, 2018 on charges of fraud and forgery and was allegedly running an illegal money changer.

He allegedly got a fake Indian passport from Manipur after marrying a woman there and some fake Aadhaar cards were recovered during searches at his premises. Sources said they are also probing allegations if Peng was "bribing" some Tibetans living in Delhi for getting some work done through them.

Andhra launches digital payment system for village, ward secretariats

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
VIJAYAWADA, AUGUST 17

WITH AN aim to promote financial inclusion and provide access of digital payments to rural areas of the state, the Andhra Pradesh government, in association with National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI) and Canara Bank, on Monday announced accessibility of UPI payments to 15,004 villages secretariats and ward secretariats of the state.

Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy launched the initiative, which has "paved the way for customers to experience easy, safe and instant payment mode – UPI – for their day-to-day transactions", according to a media release. With the introduction of QR Code, UPI is set to empower thousands of villagers with digital payments and introduce convenience in transactions, it stated.

Reddy said, "I am confident that UPI will enable numerous villagers to perform convenience and hassle-free cashless transactions. We look forward to launch digital payments in other geographies as well in near future.."
